A wonderful visit

Last year, Miss Chan took my classmates and I to the Old People's Home. It is in Po Lam. First, we did a magic trick. However, we failed! Amy put pieces of paper in the box. She said, 'When we open the box, the paper will turn into a picture!' Then, she opened the box. However, it didn't turn into a picture. We all felt embarrassed.

Then Alan played the piano. Ava and Sam danced joyfully. Ken played the piano happily. Some elderly clapped their hands loudly. Some elders laughed joyfully.

Lastly, we gave a lot of presents to the elders. They said, 'Thank you.' We said, 'You're welcome!' After five minutes, we packed up all our things and left the Old People's Home. We all felt joyful.
