

At the cake shop

Last Saturday was Ann's birthday . Max went into a cake shop. He wanted to buy a yummy cake for Ann. He felt excited.

In the cake shop, there were two different kinds of cake. One strawberry cake and one chocolate cake. He thought, 'Hmm, the chocolate cake is more delicious than the strawberry cake, but the strawberry cake is more popular than the chocolate cake and the chocolate cake is cheaper than the strawberry cake! I'll buy the chocolate cake.'

Then Max realized that his wallet was at home . He felt sad and gloomy but the cashier said, 'There's an offer. If you're buying a cake for a birthday person, it is for free.' He bought the cake and everyone was happy.
