My dream job

I want to be a football player when I grow up. It's because I like playing football very much. I think being a football player is exciting and challenging.

If I want to be a football player, I need to have a lot of training and eat healthily so that I can learn more skills on playing football and stay fit. Also, I need to be muscular and diligent. Besides that, I need to have team spirit so that my teammates and I can build up our teamwork and win the match.

I think I am suitable for this job because I am fit and hardworking. Although I am not muscular now, I can train more and build muscles.

I hope I can be a football player when I grow up. It's my dream in my life.
